

Speedway – Monarchs looking for volunteers

Edinburgh Monarchs are looking to fill a number of voluntary posts for the coming season.

Bosses say that the posts offer the chance to enjoy another side of the sport, often getting closer to the riders.

The spokesman added: “You will join an enthusiastic and talented team who produce every aspect of the Friday evening action at Armadale as well as working behind the scenes during the week to keep the cogs turning.”

Positions on offer include track electrician, commercial manager, journalist/content creator, back-up live updated, videographer, video editor, half cut draw ticket seller and back-up first aid team member.
