

Bonhams whisky sale on 4 March

This week at Bonhams there are many rare and interesting bottles of whisky on sale.

This includes a complete set of 43 bottles from the legendary Glenfarclas Family Casks.

Glenfarclas launched The Family Casks in 2007 in an edition of 43 bottles containing whisky distilled every year between 1952-1994, and have released bottles periodically ever since. Estimated at £140,000-180,000, this is the first complete set ever offered at auction.
