

Emergency services called to two vehicle collision

Police and ambulance crews were called to Inchview Terrace on Portobello Road shortly after 9.15am this morning after a marked Edinburgh City Council van was involved in a two-vehicle collision.

It is not known whether anyone has been injured.

A spokesperson for Police Scotland said: "Police received a report of a two car crash in Inchview Terrace, Edinburgh around 9.20am on Wednesday, 25 March. Emergency services attended and officers remain at the scene."