

Hockey – virus forces domestic shutdown

Scottish Hockey have suspended all domestic hockey until further notice however, friendly matches and training sessions are at the club's discretion.

A spokesman said: "Following consultation with clubs, and in light of facilities closure and teams self-isolating, the decision has been made in the interests of the health and safety of players, match officials, and staff.

"In this fast-moving environment, further updates will be provided when appropriate."