

LIVE – Coronavirus news updates

It is a week since the UK was told to stay home to save lives.

As at 1 April 2020 the total number of people in Scotland who have tested positive for coronavirus stands at 2,310. Sadly, 76 patients who tested positive have died. There are 311 positive cases in Lothian.

Here we bring you any news we can find as it is updated. This will be a mix of the bad news as well as good news.

We are actively looking for good news stories so please do tell us about those. Our email is editor@theedinburghreporter.co.uk
