The incident was missed by referee Kevin Clancy but SFA Compliance Officer Clare Whyte issued the player with a notice of complaint.

McNulty will miss Saturday's trip to Aberdeen and next week's home clash with St Johnstone.

Youngster Jamie Gullan is likely to take his place in the team.

Speaking after the final whistle Clare said: "There were enough cameras there to answer those questions.

"I haven't seen it back but I felt like it was a stamp at the time and I'll let people make their minds up.

"I said to the ref I thought it was a stamp. I haven't seen it myself but I have been told it's not great.

“But I’m not bothered about it now. Winning the game was the main thing.
