

OneCity Trust – funding applications open now

Applications are now open for charities and other community constituted organisations which are based in Edinburgh to apply for funding from OneCity Trust.

This is the social inclusion charity which seeks to support small or medium sized organisations. Preference is given to organisations with income of less than £500,000. Other bigger organisations may also apply and their applications will be considered.

Partnership applications are also possible where two organisations get together on a project.

Grants are between £5,000 and £10,000 and must relate to work under three themes – Community Connectedness, Cultural Bridging and Civic Inclusion.

The applications must be made by 8 May at 5pm. More details here.

