

Enjoy a little luxury this summer

A staycation might be in your plans when the lockdown restrictions ease up a bit.

And if you do, then Luxury Scotland which represents a collection of 29 of the finest properties and experiences across the country is a good place to start.

The destinations they can help you with include the iconic highland hotel, The Torridon, The Royal Yacht Britannia's sister ship, Fingal in Leith, and the unrivalled country estate with world-famous golf, Gleneagles.

Fingal in Leith

The Tourism Minister, Fergus Ewing, announced plans to open up the tourist industry from 15 July 2020, and tourism companies like Luxury Scotland are now getting ready with bookings already open.

The award winning chauffeur service, Little's will offer a bespoke tour. Each of Little's professional chauffeurs are selected for their driving skills, black book of contacts and expert local knowledge.

This summer Luxury Scotland and Little's, launch a selection of chauffeur driven tours – Luxury Scottish Staycations.
