

Police seek help to trace missing man

Police are appealing for assistance in tracing 26 year old Jason Campbell who has been reported missing from the Muirhouse area of Edinburgh.

He was last seen about 9.25pm last night in Muirhouse Grove, and has not contacted friends & family since.

He is described as being white, about 5ft 8", slim build, short brown hair, blue eyes. Jason was last seen wearing black trainers with white soles, dark bottoms, a green jacket with black stripe down arms and black cap. He is thought to be carrying a dark coloured rucksack and is possibly in possession of a tent.

Inspector Claire Masterton from Drylaw Police station says "Jason has been missing for a number of hours now, this is completely out of character for him and his friends are understandably worried about him. We have a number of police resources out looking for Jason and I am now looking for the assistance from the public to help trace him.

If you believe you have seen Jason or have any information please contact 101 quoting incident no. 3775 of the 28/06/2020.
