

Hibs finalise squad numbers including Academy graduates

Hibs have finally confirmed all squad numbers including Academy graduates for season 2020/21 which kicks off against Kilmarnock at Easter Road on Saturday 1 August.

Club captain David Gray retains the number two jersey whilst the number three is vacant following the release of Steven Whittaker.

Ryan Porteous finally accepts the number five top following in the footsteps of League Cup winning captain Rob Jones and John 'Yogi' Hughes.

New signing Drey Wright has been allocated the number eight following the departure of Vykintas Slivka.

Alex Gogic will wear number 13 whilst Kevin Nisbet will take over Greg Docherty's number 15, a number he wore with distinction at Raith Rovers and Dunfermline Athletic.

Florian Kamberi retains his number 22 top but his future at Hibs remains in doubt.

Young striker Jamie Gullan will wear number 19 whilst Josh Doig will wear number 25, worn last year by Porteous and previously by fans' favourite Efe Ambrose.

Deputy left back Sean Mackie who spent last season on loan with Dundee before picking up an injury has been allocated number 26.

Highly rated youngsters Ben Stirling and Ryan Shanley will wear numbers 27 and 29 respectively.
