

Hibs season tickets back on sale with new eight month payment plan available

Following yesterday's momentous day with three new players, Drey Wright, Kevin Nisbet and Alex Gogic joining the club, Hibs have now put their season tickets back on sale to the public.

When last Friday's Early Bird and Seat Release deadline kicked in, some 10,342 Hibs' fans had backed the club through the purchase of season tickets and now the seat switch requests have been sorted through, season tickets are back on sale.

The club have announced a new eight-month payment plan to take advantage of through their finance partner, V12, which is available at an annual fixed rate of interest at 7.75 per cent to the borrower.

To purchase a season ticket using the payment plan, fans should add their season ticket to the basket and go to the check-out – picking the payment plan as their method of payment.

This will then open a new window which is a finance application form, which will need to be completed.

the Ticket Office team – who continue to work remotely – will be happy to help supporters out and can be contacted via tickets@hibernianfc.co.uk.

Further details are available via the club's website
