

Man taken to hospital after unknown liquid thrown in his face

A police investigation is underway after a 21-year-old man had an unknown liquid thrown in his face at an Edinburgh park

Emergency services were alerted to the incident which happened at Saughton Park at just after 2pm yesterday afternoon.

The victim was taken to hospital as a precaution.

A Police Scotland spokesperson said: "Police received a report that a man had an unknown liquid thrown in his face in Saughton Park, Edinburgh around 2.10pm on Saturday, 4 July, 2020.

"The 21-year-old man has been taken to hospital as a precaution.

"Enquiries are ongoing to trace the person responsible."