

Thorntons Edinburgh office promotions announced

The law firm Thorntons has promoted six lawyers in their offices in Edinburgh and Dundee.

At the Citypoint Haymarket three new associates have been appointed Joanne Clancy and Lauren Fettes from Personal Injury and Neil Falconer from Intellectual Property. Michaela Dougan has been promoted to senior solicitor in the Personal Injury team.

Colin Graham, Chairman at Thorntons, said: "It's great to recognise the fantastic achievements of these six solicitors and announce their well-deserved promotions.

"Training and development remains integral to the growth and success of the firm and by encouraging internal career progression, it provides motivation for our colleagues to work hard for clients and the firm as a whole. Congratulations to our newly appointed associates and senior solicitors."
