

Witness appeal after serious crash in West Lothian

Police are appealing for witnesses following a serious road crash involving a black Subaru Impreza and an Audi Q2 which took place on Friday afternoon on the B7066 Road, Whitburn.

A 59-year-old man was rushed to Queen Elizabeth University Hospital with serious injuries whilst two men, both aged 31, were also taken to Edinburgh Royal Infirmary for treatment and were later discharged.

The road was closed for around six hours to allow a full scene investigation to take place.

Sergeant Stephen Quinn, of Lothians Road Policing, said: “This was a serious collision and we are looking for anybody who was driving on the road or witnessed the incident to contact police.

“In particular, if there were any vehicles in the area at the time that may have dashcam footage that could help officers, or anyone in the area with CCTV footage, I would ask that you get in touch.”

Anyone with information can contact police on 101 quoting incident number 1681 of Friday, 17 July.
