

Edinburgh International Festival 2020 – Ghost Light

Watch The National Theatre of Scotland perform Hope Dickson Leach's Ghost Light which was performed and recorded at The Festival Theatre.

It is now on the Edinburgh International Festival YouTube channel and you can watch it here too.

As a part of My Light Shines On, the Edinburgh International Festival has commissioned some of Scotland's major national artistic companies to create extraordinary works that audiences can enjoy from their own homes.

In celebration of our Festival City, they bring light and life to sites that must stay empty this year with unique theatrical performances created for film and insights from artists.

You can watch now Ghost Light and other films as part of My Light Shines On on the Edinburgh International Festival's YouTube channel.
