

'If you know your history' to feature Jim McArthur

Former Hibs' goalkeeper Jim McArthur joins Hibernian Community Foundation and club Historian Tom Wright for the latest episode of 'If you know your history' on Tuesday 18th of August 19.00-20.30.

Jim joined Hibs from Cowdenbeath in 1972 as back up to Jim Herriot. Eddie Turnbull gave him his debut against Dumbarton on 28th October.

In a 10-year-career he was a regular first-choice under Turnbull, Willie Ormond, Bertie Auld and Pat Stanton.

He helped the club to a Drybrough Cup win over Celtic and played in a League Cup defeat to the same team.

He also played in the three Scottish Cup finals against Rangers in 1979 then helped the club to the First Division title two-years later.

In addition, he featured in many European games including against Leeds, Liverpool and Juventus.

Jim is a 'weel kent' and popular face around the stadium on matchdays where he sits in the Upper West stand.
