

Jason Cummings named in FA Cup Team of the Season thanks to Liverpool double

Former Hibs' Scottish Cup winning striker Jason Cummings has been included in the FA Cup team of the season, alongside Kieran Tierney, David Luiz and Arsenal duo Nicolas Pepe and Pierre-Emerick Aubameyang.

Cummings came off the substitutes bench to score twice for Shrewsbury against English champions Liverpool in the fourth round of the competition.

His goals secured a 2-2 with Jurgen Klopp's men and forced a replay at Anfield which they eventually lost.

The FA Cup held votes on social media across each position on the pitch

On Instagram, Cummings joked: "Thanks to everyone that voted. Needed me for a bit of pace up there."

The full team is as follows: Goalkeeper – Emiliano Martinez (Arsenal)

Defenders – Neco Williams (Liverpool), David Luiz (Arsenal), Ben Godfrey (Norwich), Kieran Tierney (Arsenal).

Midfield – Curtis Jones (Liverpool), Granit Xhaka (Arsenal), Dani Ceballos (Arsenal).

Attack – Nicolas Pepe (Arsenal), Jason Cummings (Shrewsbury), Pierre-Emerick Aubameyang (Arsenal).
