

Police advise public to be wary after reports of bogus workmen activity

Police are urging the public to be wary following reports of bogus workmen operating in Edinburgh.

Officers have now issued the following advice.

“Be on guard if someone turns up unexpectedly as there are some unscrupulous individuals offering to sell goods or services.

Police Scotland. Photo: Martin P. McAdam www.martinmcadam.com
Don't be afraid to say no and don't be embarrassed as genuine callers expect you to be careful. If you're not sure, don't answer the door and report the incident to police.

“If you know someone who may be vulnerable, please make them aware so that together we can #ShutOutScammers

“For more information check our website – <http://ow.ly/VL1u50B2pS2>”