

Police growing 'increasingly concerned' for welfare of missing man

Police are appealing for information to help trace missing 67-year-old Alexander Cunningham who was last seen leaving his home address in Craigmount Drive around 5.30pm on Friday, 21 August, 2020.

He is described as a white male, around 5ft 6in tall with glasses, short grey hair and walks slowly with a limp. When last seen, Alexander was wearing a brown jacket with zip and pockets, black boots and grey trousers.

Alexander Cunningham

Inspector Caroline Flynn, of Drylaw Response Policing, said: "We are becomingly increasingly concerned about Alexander's whereabouts and we are looking for assistance to help trace him safe and well.

“He is believed to be in possession of his bus pass and may have travelled, therefore we ask if anyone has seen anyone matching this description that they get in contact with officers.

“If anyone has any information that could help trace Alexander then please get in touch.

“Police can be contacted on 101 quoting incident number 1432 of Saturday, 22 August, 2020.”