

Fans can stream Scotland Under-21 clash with Czech Republic at Tynecastle

Scotland fans will be able to watch Scot Gemmill's Under-21s take on Czech Republic across Scotland National Team platforms – including Twitch for the first time.

The youngsters, fresh from defeating Lithuania in Vilnius, including Hibs' defender Ryan Porteous, host their Czech counterparts at Tynecastle Park on Friday, 9 October with the match kicking off at 5.30pm.

ROSS DOOHAN ROSS COUNTY ¹	TOM MCINTYRE READING	DAVID TURNBULL CELTIC	SCOTLAND U21s SQUAD v CZECH REPUBLIC & SAN MARINO FRIDAY, 9 OCTOBER TUESDAY, 13 OCTOBER
ROBBY MCCRORIE LIVINGSTON ²	NATHAN PATTERSON RANGERS	FRASER HORNBY STADE DE REIMS
KIERAN WRIGHT PARTICK THISTLE ²	RYAN PORTEOUS HIBERNIAN	CONNOR MCLENNAN ABERDEEN
HARRISON ASHBY WEST HAM UNITED	PATRICK READING AYR UNITED	GLENN MIDDLETON RANGERS
DANIEL HARVIE MK DONS	ALLAN CAMPBELL MOTHERWELL	JAMES SCOTT HULL CITY
GEORGE JOHNSTON FEYENOORD	LEWIS FERGUSON ABERDEEN
LEWIS MAYO RANGERS	STEPHEN KELLY ROSS COUNTY ²	¹ ON LOAN FROM CELTIC ² ON LOAN FROM RANGERS
ROSS MCCRORIE ABERDEEN ²	BARRY MAGUIRE MOTHERWELL

 NOTHING MATTERS MORE

Fans will be able to tune in to watch the match for free on the Scotland National Team Facebook, Twitter, YouTube and Twitch channels.

The reverse fixture saw a 0-0 draw between the sides in Uherske Hradiste last October.