

Edinburgh Delivers – Shezan

In light of the new restrictions announced by The Scottish Government this week, restaurants and pubs in Edinburgh will be closed from Friday 9 October at 6pm.

We are highlighting some of the businesses which you can patronise by enjoying their food at home. If you have an Edinburgh business and would like to be featured here then get in touch. editor@theedinburghreporter.co.uk

Shahid and his staff at Shezan on Union Place are taking every precaution to ensure they are following government guidelines to keep both their customers and staff safe.

They are serving delicious Indian Cuisine 7 days a week offering:

- ☐ Takeaways, contactless deliveries, walk-ins and phone orders.
- ☐ Online card payments and contactless payments preferable.
- ☐ Order with ease through our App or on their website shezainedinburgh.com
