Each player's T-shirt contains a unique educational message from the world's leading anti-racist campaigners, to Scotland's young people from Show Racism the Red Card's Creative Competition.

The launch of the new T-shirts, first seen worn by Premiership players on Matchday 1 of this season, follows the renewed partnership between the charity and the SPFL which will see players from all four divisions take action on the weekend of 23rd – 25th October.
