

Speedway – title sponsors secured for British under-21 final

Berwick Bandits have secured a title sponsor for their staging of the British under-21 speedway final on Wednesday, October 21 (7pm).

ATPI delivers corporate travel and events solutions to organisations in a variety of specialist sectors around the world.

The event will also be powered by Visit Berwick and in association with Grant Henderson Tankers.

Bandits' co-owner, Scott Courtney (pictured), said: "Response to the event has been fantastic and there's still space for new companies who would like to be a part of this prestigious meeting,

"Souvenir race jacket sponsorship and heat sponsorship opportunities are still available."
