

Growing concern for missing Paisley man with links to Edinburgh

Officers at Paisley are appealing for the assistance of the public in tracing a 48 year-old man who is missing from the Paisley area but is a regular visitor to the capital

David Clark (48), was last seen in the Ralston area of Paisley around 5.30pm on Wednesday, 18 November, 2020. He was in a white Volkswagen UP with the registration SK17 MFA.

David is described as white, 6ft 3ins in height and of slim build. He has short, dark-coloured hair with a beard and moustache. He is thought to be wearing a black padded gilet and a black beanie hat.

Enquiries and searches are ongoing to trace David. He is known to frequent the Milngavie, Knightswood and Kings Park areas, and he also regularly visits Edinburgh too.

Officers are becoming increasingly concerned for his wellbeing and safety as it is out of character for him not to keep in touch with his friends and family.

Anyone with information on his whereabouts is asked to contact Paisley Police Office through 101 quoting reference number 2135 of 19 November.
