

Hibs announce new formalwear partnership with Marc Darcy Menswear

Hibs have announced a new formalwear partnership with Marc Darcy Menswear

The award-winning Marc Darcy brand was established in 1989 and over years of success has grown to become one of the UK's leading suit suppliers for all occasions.

Marc Darcy director Karen Johal said: We are overjoyed to have secured a Partnership with Hibernian FC, and excited to be able to create solid ties with the club.

“We are very much looking forward to seeing our heritage designs on the players and corporate staff and proud to be able to offer these designs directly to the fantastic fanbase.”

Marc Darcy trades with stores throughout the UK in an effort to make the brand readily available to customers.

Additionally, the brand has bagged trophies for the prestigious Drapers Menswear Brand of the Year for two consecutive years and has come highly commended for their Groomswear collection in the British Wedding Awards.

Hibs' Commercial Manager Murray Milligen added: “I'm delighted to be working with Marc Darcy menswear. It's important that as a club, we are able to kit out staff and players with top quality formalwear and Marc Darcy were the obvious choice for us. It's another growing brand to add to our partnership family here at Hibernian and I look forward to a mutually beneficial relationship.
