

Hibs' star Rachael Boyle called up for EURO 2022 double header

Hibs' star Rachael Boyle has been named in Shelley Kerr's 27-player squad for two crucial EURO 2022 qualifying matches against Portugal at the Estádio do Restelo, Lisbon on Friday 27 November and Finland at Easter Road on Tuesday 1 December.

Both games are live on BBC ALBA.

Scotland go into the matches on the back of a win and a loss in their last double header.

A comfortable victory over Albania at Tynecastle was followed by a disappointing 1-0 loss against Finland and now Shelley Kerr's side are aiming to get back on track.

There is a consistent feel to the squad with Jen Beattie, Chloe Arthur and Kim Little returning to the squad after not playing for Scotland this year.

Fiona Brown also returns to the fold after recovering from a serious injury after the World Cup last year.

The full squad is as follows:
