

Book an elf ride with Joy Rides Edinburgh for a little Christmas cheer

Joy Rides owner, Lissa McIntyre, usually takes elderly people out on her trishaw for a bit of fresh air, and this last week or two she has been helping Santa out.

You can book an elf ride too. To join in the fun and book an Elf Ride, text Lissa Elf on 07834 916 230.

Prior to the lockdown she would take them out, often from care homes, for a spin in a green space to feel the wind in their hair.

This year everything has been a bit different. So this Christmas Lissa dressed in her elf costume and got on her bike.

She has decided to bring Christmas to people this year, delivering presents to their doors. She has been out and about with Betsi to bring some cheer to the people of Edinburgh, particularly children taking them for a ride round their local park.

You can book a slot for you or as a gift for someone else online here
