David Davies has more than 30 years senior executive experience in international entertainment and sport, including spells as Chief Executive at Queens Park Rangers and Edinburgh Rugby. More recently, David has worked for LiveNation as European VP for Property and Facilities, helping stadium venues generate new event revenues.

Executive Chairman Ronald J Gordon said: "I am delighted that after hearing our strategic vision for the club all four readily agreed to join the Board of Hibernian. They are as excited about the great potential at our club as I am, and their energy, commitment and expertise will be important in helping us make our vision for the club a reality.

"I wanted to expand the Board to make it more representative of the club and its community. We now have a board that is increasingly diverse and that represents more sectors of business life in the city.

"All the new directors will add to the wealth of experience and skill already on the Board, and I am delighted at the team of directors we have in place to support our executive leadership in making Hibernian a club our supporters can be truly proud of. I want to thank them in advance for their commitment and service to our club and community."
