

Miles Briggs runs his Christmas Card competition

Miles Briggs MSP has selected the winner of his annual Christmas card competition.

He has run the competition since he was first elected in 2016.

This year's Christmas Card theme was NHS Scotland, to honour frontline workers who have worked incredibly hard throughout the Covid-19 pandemic.

The competition was open to all primary schools in Edinburgh and the Lothians, and Elsie Adams age 8, from St Peter's Primary School in Morningside, P4, was chosen as the winner.

Elsie won £50 Amazon voucher (sponsored by Morrison Construction), afternoon tea at the Caledonian (sponsored by Waldorf Astoria) and a family day out at Conifox Adventure Park (sponsored by Conifox).

Miles was not able to present the winner, Elsie, with her prize in person due to Covid-19 restrictions.

Lothian MSP, Miles Briggs, said: "There were some very creative Christmas cards this year and pupils in Edinburgh and the Lothian's once again showed their artistic talent.

"The competition was very close with hundreds of Christmas card entries from primary schools across the region, with inventive designs from hand sanitiser to the distinctive NHS rainbow.

"What was clear from the entries was that primary school pupils are aware of the tremendous effort that NHS staff have made throughout this year.

“Congratulations to the winner Elsie, whose bright card and fun design stood out as the winner of my 2020 Christmas card competition.”

Miles Briggs in his office at Holyrood choosing the winning entry