

Church of Scotland to hold virtual General Assembly this year

The Church of Scotland General Assembly for 2021 will be held online for the second year running.

The annual event will begin on 22 May 2021 with commissioners and other attendees joining together remotely from across Scotland and around the world.

In ordinary times the event brings around 800 commissioners and visitors to Edinburgh to debate on Church matters and the issues of the day.

Details of the 2021 General Assembly are still being finalised and more information will be released in the coming months.
