Colin Graham, Chairman at Thorntons, said: "It's an absolute privilege to recognise the commitment, leadership and expertise of our colleagues.

"I admire everyone across the firm for their outstanding work ethic amidst such a challenging backdrop last year and it's fantastic to start the New Year with two new partners and a new legal director who will play integral parts in our aspirations for the year ahead. I trust they will continue to deliver exceptional service to our clients and further establish Thorntons as one of the leading law firms in Scotland Congratulations Gary, Lucy and Janice."

The other promotions are Garry Mannion in the Personal Injury Team in Dundee who is promoted to partner and Janice Napier who becomes Legal Director in Business Law in the Perth office.
