

Hibs finish league campaign with three home games

Hibs will finish the season with three home games in their pursuit for a third place finish and European qualification.

Jack Ross's men go into the split seven points clear of Aberdeen with a superior goal difference.

Scottish Premiership – Livingston v Hibernian
Tony Macaroni Arena, Livingston, West Lothian. UK.
20/03/2021

Livingston play host to Hibernian in the Scottish Premier League at the Tony Macaroni Arena, Livingston.

Pic shows: A share of the points just about right as the game end 1-1.

Credit: Ian Jacobs

First up for Hibs is a trip to Ibrox on Sunday April 11, before a Wednesday night home match against Livingston on April 21.

League Cup winners St Johnstone visit the capital on Saturday May 1 before another midweek trip, this time to Aberdeen on Wednesday May 12.

The final match of the league season is a home fixture against Celtic fixed for 12.30pm on Saturday May 15.

So far none of Hibs' fixtures have been initially selected for television broadcast but the SPFL has indicated that this could yet change.