

Missing 13-year-old girl found safe and well

Demi-Leigh McDaid who was reported missing from the Drylaw area of Edinburgh has been traced safe and well.

Concerns had been growing for the welfare of the 13-year-old and Police Scotland reported the matter on their social media sites.

Earlier today they confirmed the good news that Demi-Leigh had been found.

Officers thanked the media and members of the public for their assistance with this matter.
