

Police charge 17-year-old youth after buses targeted in Edinburgh

A teenager has been traced in connection with a series of incidents where buses were targeted in Edinburgh

The 17-year-old male was arrested over the weekend after he was identified during enquiries into the incidents which happened on Friday, 9 April at Marchmont Crescent, Princes Street and Pennywell Road.

He was charged with four incidents of culpable and reckless conduct together with other instances of anti-social behaviour and will appear at Edinburgh Sheriff Court at a later date.