Womens Recruitment Event

Police Scotland would like to encourage more women to consider becoming a Police Officer in Scotland.

We are hosting a 90 minute Online Recruitment event. The event is aimed at women, to provide an insight into the role of a police officer/special constable. You will learn about the recruitment process, the training involved and the endless opportunities which would be available to you as you embark on this journey. Women are currently under-represented in the Police and it is hoped the event will inspire you to consider a career in policing.

The date of the event is:

Wednesday 5th May 2021
6.30pm - 8pm

In order to participate in the event, Microsoft Teams will be required.

For more information and to reserve a space please email:
