

Concern growing for missing 15-year-old boy from Chipping Campden who may be in Leith

Gloucestershire Constabulary is appealing for help to locate a boy who has been reported missing since leaving an address in Chipping Campden.

Concern is growing for the welfare of Jack Langhorn, 15, who was last seen leaving an address on Porter Close on Sunday, 2 May, 2021 at 8.30pm.

It is believed Jack travelled to Cumbria and then on to Scotland and is now in Edinburgh, possibly in the Leith area of the city.

Jack is thought to be travelling on public transport and on foot.

He is described as being of a pale white complexion, 5ft 8ins tall, with short red hair, and of a slim build.

When last seen Jack was wearing a black woolly beanie hat with a white motif on the front, black body warmer, grey top, and dark tracksuit bottoms.

Police are appealing for anyone who has seen him or knows of his whereabouts to call Gloucestershire Constabulary on 101 and quote incident 396 of 2 May.
