

Books – at Topping & Co this June

Topping & Co have a range of online events coming up in June to entertain you.

There are six online author events this month. Of particular interest to readers in Edinburgh, there is one event with former Prime Minister and former Edinburgh University student Gordon Brown to discuss his new book Seven Ways to Change the World. In the wake of the Covid-19 pandemic Brown has thought about the major problems we must address as a global community.
