

New mural commissioned by Innis & Gunn on display in Leith

Scottish brewer Innis & Gunn commissioned Edinburgh street artist, Shona Hardie to create an homage to the wonders of Leith, with a new large-scale mural.

Part of Innis & Gunn's summer Lager Beer campaign – 'If You Know, You Know' – and a demonstration of the brewer's continued support for the on-trade, the huge mural comprises a staggering 47 different images, depicting Leith's culture and characters, icons and landmarks.

Featuring everything from a pioneering women's rights activist to the more obscure Mitchell's Hot Dog, the mural is now on display at Teuchters Landing at The Shore.

