

Edinburgh Jazz & Blues Festival 2021

The start of a summer of live music in Scotland's capital, Edinburgh Jazz & Blues Festival is back for 2021 with an exciting programme.

This will showcase the amazing music from Scotland with 20 live concerts and 42 online concerts and events welcoming audiences in person and online.

Jamie Graham of Brass Gumbo

Brass Gumbo played for the press and lucky walkers on top of Calton Hill on Thursday morning in advance of their live concert Brass Gumbo Play The Beatles at the festival.

One final piece of music heralding the start of @EdinburghJazz next week both in person and online – then get on with your day... pic.twitter.com/CnR3BJRYyE

– Edinburgh Reporter (@EdinReporter) July 8, 2021

The Edinburgh Jazz and Blues Festival will run from Friday 16 – Sunday 25 July 2021.

<https://edinburghjazzfestival.com/>

Brass Gumbo played on top of Calton Hill on Thursday morning.
Brass Gumbo are: Charles Dearness – Trumpet, Tom Pickles –
Saxophone, Ross Lothian – Trombone, Rory Clark –
Sousaphone, Jamie Graham – Drums