

At Art & Craft Collective – The Expression of Flowers

FLOWERS ARE BLOOMING IN ART & CRAFT COLLECTIVE'S AUGUST EXHIBITION

'The Expression of Flowers' by Stirlingshire artist Angelene Perry is the summer exhibition at the Art & Craft Collective gallery in Causewayside. The exhibition opens on 7 August and runs until 2 October.

After several years lecturing at Forth Valley College, Angelene left to pursue her artistic career full time in 2016. This is her first Edinburgh exhibition and focuses on her love of capturing flowers, wild and cultivated, in pen and ink.

"We're delighted to showcase the work of a talented emerging artist such as Angelene," commented Lindsay Given Black, Art & Craft Collective's director. "Her work is lovely and deserves as wide exposure as possible."
