

Live Festive theatre returns to Edinburgh this Christmas

Edinburgh's favourite pantomime, Sleeping Beauty, returns to the King's for 2021-22. Allan Stewart and Grant Stott return to their pantomime home as Queen May and Carabosse. They'll be accompanied by panto-favourite Jordan Young in the role of Muddles. Sia Dauda will play Princess Beauty and Nicola Meehan appears as The Good Fairy.

Clare Gray returns to the King's Theatre panto as Narcissa. Her presence in the cast is a very fitting tribute to her father Andy Gray who sadly passed away last year.

This will be the last pantomime at the King's Theatre before it closes for a £25million redevelopment next year, during which time the pantomime will transfer to the Festival Theatre before making a triumphant return to the King's in 2024 when it reopens.

In tandem with the pantomime we'll be fundraising to encourage audiences to invest in Christmas Future by donating to the King's redevelopment and ensuring many more pantos can thrive there for years to come visit www.capitaltheatres.com/kings-future for more details.

Capital Theatres and Crossroads Pantomimes present

Sleeping Beauty

King's Theatre

Sat 27 Nov 2021 to Sun 16 Jan 2022 Matinees and Evenings available

On sale now: www.capitaltheatres.com | 0131 529 6000

This winter, let Tchaikovsky's 'The Nutcracker' banish the dark skies and enjoy a visual feast as you and your family are taken on a fantastical adventure. With choreography by Scottish Ballet founder Peter Darrell, and live music played by the Scottish Ballet Orchestra, this ever-popular ballet is the perfect Christmas treat.

Scottish Ballet's: The Nutcracker

Festival Theatre

Wed 1 – Fri 31 December 2021 Matinees and Evenings available

On sale now: www.capitaltheatres.com | 0131 529 6000

Join us for 'The Enormous Christmas Turnip', a magical, musical rollercoaster of a Christmas dinner party like no other!

This production is commissioned by Aberdeen Performing Arts, Capital Theatres and Eden Court and are funded through Creative Scotland's Performing Arts Venues Relief Fund.

The Enormous Christmas Turnip

The Studio

Fri 17 – Fri 31 December 2021 Daytime and Twilight performances available