

Roadworks in Edinburgh next week

The report below is produced by The City of Edinburgh Council's EdinTravel team and will show you what to look out for on the roads in the capital in the next week.

Traffic in Edinburgh City Centre has been very congested recently and that continues. As well as the closure to northbound traffic on North Bridge there are major changes at Picardy Place to allow work on the Trams to Newhaven project to continue. These will last for around four months.
