

Five restaurants offering 'FREE' kids menus for February half term

The five Signature Group restaurants in Edinburgh will offer a free kids menu for half term 14-18 February.

All have a tasty selection on offer for children up to the age of ten, hoping to encourage families to support local during the school holidays while offering youngsters healthy hot meals made from local produce.

Dishes include haddock goujons, Scottish beef burgers and sausages and mash, all made with ingredients sources from local suppliers such as John Wallace the family seafood company, John Gilmour Butchers and Crombies of Edinburgh.

Hannah McConnachie, Business Development Manager for Edinburgh-based Signature Group, said: "We're really excited to be launching a new free kids' menu at our selected family-friendly venues across Edinburgh this February half term holidays.

"Not only do we want to encourage people back into Edinburgh to support their independent, family-friendly restaurants and bars, but we want to offer youngsters a tasty menu designed especially with them in mind.

"Our team of development chefs have cooked up fresh and tasty new selection of free kids' hot meals showcasing some of the best locally sourced produce from around Scotland, which we're all really proud and are confident all our younger diners will love.”
