

Roadworks in Edinburgh next week

The report below is produced by The City of Edinburgh Council's EdinTravel team and will show you what to look out for on the roads in the capital in the next week.

Traffic in Edinburgh City Centre has been even more congested recently and that will continue with more roadworks in Roseburn as the council begins creating the City Centre East to West Link (CCWEL).

As well as the closure to northbound traffic on North Bridge major changes at Picardy Place and York Place will allow work on the Trams to Newhaven project to continue. These will last for around four months. Meantime the tram will not travel along Princes Street, instead stopping at West End stop – Shandwick Place – for the foreseeable future.
