

Berwick Bandits earn revenge over Edinburgh Monarchs in SGB Championship

TWO former Edinburgh Monarchs riders came back to haunt their former ex-paymasters.

New Zealand-born racer Ricky Wells (pictured) and Aussie rider Jye Ethridge both powered to 12 points as Berwick Bandits mugged Monarchs 56-34 in the Borders in the SGB Championship.

Three-time British champion Chris Harris chipped in with ten points in the comfortable win which earned revenge for Berwick's 50-40 defeat at Edinburgh.

Skipper Sam Masters top scored for Monarchs with ten points and Josh Pickering registered nine but Bandits were 32-16 ahead after Heat Eight and never looked back.
