

5 Types of Shoes Every Woman Should Have In Her Closet

A well-rounded wardrobe isn't complete without a good selection of shoes. Whether you're dressing for a casual day out or a formal event, having the right type of shoe can make all the difference in your overall look.

Although there are endless style options to choose from, there are certain types of shoes that every woman should have in her closet. These shoes are versatile and can be worn with a variety of looks.

1. A Good Pair of Sneakers

On days when you're running errands or just want to be comfortable, a good pair of sneakers is a must. Look for a pair that's versatile and can be worn with jeans, leggings, or even a dress.

White sneakers are a great option because they go with everything. They are the perfect casual shoe that can give an outfit a more laid back and effortless look. They're also versatile enough to be paired with several different outfits for everyday wear, like dressing down your suit at work or adding them alongside some chic date night dresses.

2. A Statement-Making Pair of Boots

Boots are a fall and winter staple that every woman should have in her closet. They can be worn with jeans, leggings, or even dresses to create a variety of looks. Look for a pair of boots that fit well and are comfortable to walk in. If you live in a colder climate, look for a pair of boots that will keep your feet warm and dry.

Your options are limitless when it comes to choosing the perfect pair of wide fit boots. You can go for knee-high boots, a leather buckle, chunky boots, black faux leather, ruched ankle boots, biker boots, or riding booties. Whichever style you choose, boots are a great way to add some personality to your look. Make sure they are a versatile addition to your wardrobe that can be worn with multiple outfits.

3. A Stylish Pair of Heels

For days when you want to dress up a bit, a pair of stylish heels is a must. Whether you prefer stilettos, pumps, or something in between, having a good quality pair of heels in your closet will come in handy for special occasions.

If you're looking for a versatile pair of heels, opt for a nude or black color. These colors can be worn with a variety of outfits and will elongate your legs. If you want to add a pop of color, look for a pair of brightly colored heels that can add some fun and personality to your look.

4. A Casual Pair of Flats

On days when you don't want to wear heels but still want to look put-together, a pair of flats is the way to go. Look for a pair made with comfortable materials like canvas or leather. These shoes can be worn with jeans, shorts, skirts, and dresses. If you want to add a bit of personality to your flats, look for a pair with an interesting print or design.

A black or brown pair of ballet flats is versatile and can be worn with slacks for work or jeans for a casual day out. If you want something a little more dressy, look for a pair of embellished flats that can be worn with a skirt or dress. Also ensure that you get a pair that's comfortable and easy to slip on and off.

5. A Fun Pair of Sandals

Summer is the perfect time to break out a pair of cute sandals. Whether you're hitting the beach or just running errands, a good pair of sandals can keep your feet cool and comfortable. Whether you prefer slides, thong sandals, or something in between, there are endless style options to choose from. Look for a pair that's both stylish and practical.

If you're going to be doing a lot of walking, opt for a pair of flat sandals. If you're wearing them out to dinner or an event, look for a pair of dressier sandals with heels. If you want a pair that you can dress up or down, look for a neutral color like black, brown, or nude. These colors will go with everything and can be dressed up with a flowy dress or dressed down with shorts or jeans. Just make sure to find a pair that fits well and provides good support.
