

Council elections 2022 – the results – Ward 2 – Pentland Hills Ward

There are four councillors elected to represent this ward and only two of those elected in 2017 are standing again.

Cllr Ricky Henderson (Labour) is stepping down after a long council career, and Conservative Sue Webber – who was first elected in 2017, and became the group's transport spokesperson, was pushed up the Lothians list and is now an MSP.

There were two Conservative candidates here trying to ensure the same amount of representation for the party in the ward.

- The electorate totals 24,312
- Votes cast 11,266
- Turnout 46.3%
