

Get along to the EBUG AGM

Edinburgh Bus Users' Group (EBUG) campaigns for Edinburgh's bus passengers and services. It provides a voice for bus users, aiming to protect and improve Edinburgh's bus network.

Over the past year, EBUG has:

completed 'Bus Stop Audits' reflecting concerns about the variable quality of bus stops across Edinburgh.

run 'election events' focussing on the Council elections and what they mean for bus users highlighted missed opportunities to secure funding for the bus network encouraged take-up of the under-22s 'bus pass'

EBUG's AGM is at 6pm, Thursday 30 June in the Quaker Meeting House, Victoria Terrace. Just 20 minutes of business, then it will be over to Jess Pepper of lovemybus, a campaign promoting bus use.

AGM papers are available at <https://edinburghbususers.group>

Capacity at the Meeting House is now 60.

Priority will be given to EBUG members – sign up online <https://edinburghbususers.group> – or email EBUG
