

American sports bar planned for Rose Street

Roxy Leisure will open Roxy Lanes in Rose Street this November in the space where British Home Stores served Edinburgh for so many years.

The 25,000 square feet city centre location will feature a range of activities including ten-pin bowling, ice-free curling, American pool, air hockey, karaoke, arcade games, basketball, beer pong, bank shot shuffleboard, and shuffleboard.

Roxy Leisure's, Commercial Manager, Joel Mitchell, said, "Edinburgh is a beautiful and historic city with a creative spirit. With its abundance of theatres, comedy clubs, bars, and restaurants Edinburgh's nightlife scene is second-to-none. We're excited about bringing our competitive gaming concept to this vibrant city."
