

How to play safely online at legal bet sites?

The United Kingdom Gambling Commission (UKGC) recommends that users who want to bet within this territory select trusted bookmakers in UK that are licensed and legally regulated. This non-profit organization is responsible for granting licences to online gaming companies with responsible behaviour. In this way, players can feel safe and protected on legal platforms.

Before betting in bookmakers platforms

The volume of players in this sector is increasing in Europe, mainly. But not everyone takes the proper precautions. Some people do not know how to select the best bookmakers, and they lose money, while others only trust websites and best online bookmakers with legal licences from the UKGC. The aim is to protect British users who decide to play and bet, so they are not victims of scams and robberies.

It is necessary to follow the recommendations of the UKGC and the UK Gambling Act. European organizations such as the Dirección General de Ordenación del Juego (DGOJ) in Spain, the Autorité de Régulation des Jeux en Ligne (ARJEL) in France, the Belgian Gaming Commission, among others, add to these recommendations.

Check that the bookmaker is legal

Just as physical bookmaker have a legal permit and are governed by regulations, reliable UK bookmakers must have a licence issued by the UKGC and the "Safe Gambling" seal. In this regard, users should choose accredited and regulated bookmakers platforms that meet each legal requirement. It is checked before registering on a particular bet platform on the UKGC website.

Use trusted Wi-Fi networks

It is usual for players to be able to play from any location and device at bookmakers platforms. But using a public Wi-Fi network or a device other than your own may expose you to risks of scams and fraud. Therefore, it is preferable to use a private Wi-Fi network or mobile data from home and a personal device, with which total security is offered.

Use bookmakers with large selection of sports

Of the hundreds of online bookmakers platforms, some are not as secure and not sufficiently experienced in software and security. So, it is best to choose trusted bookmakers with the most extensive sports providers that have developed the software for bookmakers platforms internationally.

Check the payment methods

Different payment methods exist for placing bets in real-time at trusted UK bookmakers through wire transfers and electronic payments. However, users should make sure they can use at least two of these payment methods to be safe and secure when making deposit and withdrawal transactions.

The UKGC also warns users to check the accepted currencies, such as euros or dollars, and the means to safely withdraw deposits. Nowadays, reliable bookmakers employ PayPal or Neteller because they are very secure for transferring funds. However, if a bookmaker does not have these payment methods, it is advisable to look for other gaming operators.

Variety of sports

An online betting site must have a vast catalogue to try and to select different sports and find the one that best suits one's preferences and skills. It seems logical to have various sports to bet on to avoid using different bookmakers.
